9.1 Adopt a Resolution to Temporarily Relocate Polling Locations for Precincts 3 and 4 in Pittsfield Charter Township due to COVID-19 Related Restrictions Effective with the August 4, 2020 Primary Election, Resolution #20-27.

Moved by Clerk Anzaldi, supported by Trustee Krone, to Adopt a Resolution to Temporarily Relocate Polling Locations for Precincts 3 and 4 in Pittsfield Charter Township due to COVID-19 Related Restrictions Effective with the August 4, 2020 Primary Election, Resolution #20-27.

Clerk Anzaldi explained to the Board that the Clerk's Office had been informed by Chinmaya Mission that they would be unable to use their facilities as a polling location for the August Primary Election due to COVID-19 related restrictions. Clerk Anzaldi further explained that voters from that location would be temporarily relocated to Carpenter Elementary. This shouldn't be a problem due to the massive increase in mail-in ballots.

Trustee Edwards-Brown asked whether this change in polling locations would also occur in November.

Clerk Anzaldi stated that she was hopeful that voters could return to vote at Chinmaya Mission in November.

Supervisor Grewal stated that she feels that this is symptomatic of what most municipalities are experiencing around the state and country. She stated that Congresswoman Debbie Dingell was pulling together a forum with Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson and clerks to discuss a multitude of concerns relating to upcoming elections.

Clerk Anzaldi informed the Board that the Clerk's Office would be sending out notice to voters informing them of the polling location changes.
